One Negro Registers at Dollarway

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Only one Negro child registered for integrated classes today as the Dollarway School Board signed up first graders under a new desegregation plan which has tentative approval of a federal court.

Pupils with names starting with letters A-M registered today. The N-names will be registered tomorrow.

Samuel Wayne Cato, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cato, was registered by his mother. The boy's father is a self-employed electrician.

No crowd gathered in contrast to last year when segregationists heckled parents of three Negro children who sought to enter the first grade at Dollarway.

The Dollarway School Board is putting into effect a desegregation plan which has the tentative approval of U. S. District Judge
J. Smith Henley of Little Rock.
However, Henley has ordered a report by July 15 on how the board applied the plan during registration.

The board told Henley it would attempt to assign students to the school parents select if such as assignment does not conflict with Arkansas pupil placement laws.

Henley expressed some concern
because the board did not volunteer to expand integration at the second grade level, but he did not order the board to consider second grade applications.

One Negro child, Delores Jean York, 6, will be eligible to attend
the second grade at Dollarway.
She was admitted last year under an old desegregation plan later invalidated by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Gets Under Par

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Defending champions Willis Watkins
Jr. and Dr. Fred Gordy Jr. shot a fix-under-par 66 Sunday to win the Conway Four-Ball golf tournament by five strokes with a 36-hole score of 136.

appeals court order should be implemented.

Young, a one-time president of the Pine Bluff School Board, said he wasn't going to try to supervise individual school board acts.
He said it would be an impossible task and would hinder rather than help.

Before today's hearing, Wiley
A. Branton of Pine Bluff, who represents the Negro plaintiffs in the long-pending case, filed a proposed decree which would require the Little Rock School Board to assign pupils by attendance areas only.

Board attorneys asked for a general order directing "affirmative action to carry out the integration plan as implemented by the proper application of the pupil assignment law of Arkansas."

Under the assignment law residence is only one of a number of factors involved in designating which schools pupils shall attend.

Branton also has asked for integration of junior high schools next fall.

Last Thursday night the board voted to place 25 Negroes in four of the city's five white junior high schools.

Prescott News

Kathy Reeves and Jim Franks entertained a group of friends with an "End of School Party"
Friday at the Community Center.
The Center was decorated with streamers of blue, yellow and pink crepe paper hanging from the ceiling centered with balloons.

The first sugar beet factory was built by Franz Carl Ahtard in Silesia in 1802, with the air of the King of Prussia.

The serving table was covered with a large bouquet of yellow gladioli and greenery. Big signs that read "Good Ole Summer,"
"Happy Vacation" etc. decorated the walls. From the center of the room hung a large Mexican Pinata filled with candy. The Pinta was a yellow, pink, and blue clown with a tall blue hat.
As the guest entered they were greeted at the door by Jim and

Kathy and each guest was given a number to start the first dance.
The group enjoyed dancing and games.

Cookies, candy and cold drinks were served to the 35 guests.
Chaperones for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Franks and
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reeves.
Marcia Reeves assisted with the games.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gragham have as their guest at their cabin in Pine Ridge, Misses Susan and Sandra Ward and Gail Graham.

Mrs. Roy Stainton was hostess to the Business Womens Circle of the First Baptist Church Thursday. Mrs. Ruth Buchanan, chairman conducted the business and Mrs. Stainton voiced the opening prayer.

The program was given by Mrs. Stainton, Mrs. Ruth Buchanan and Mrs. Ruby Buchanan.
Mrs. Viola Phillips taught the study book.

The hostess served cold drinks
and cookies to the six present.

Miss Brenda Wilson of Little Rock spent Friday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vee Wilson and attended the graduation exercises of her brother, J. D. at Prescott High Friday night.

Miss Lonnie Wilson and Jackie drove to L.R. Wednesday to bring Lonnie home from a visit. He has been a patient in the Missouri Pacific Hospital here.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hooks will drive to Denton, Texas today to bring their daughter, Susie, home. She has been a student at North Texas State. Other guests arriving to visit the Hooks this week include Orville Kelly and son Johnny of Neederland, Texas.
Mrs. Kelly is the daughter of the Hooks.

Miss Anna Jordan gave her piano recital Thursday at the High School auditorium in Arkadelphia.
Attending from Prescott were

Mrs. Dudley Gordon and Ellen,
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gordon and Mrs. Wat White.

Speedway Race Set for Tuesday

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—A potential record-breaking field, with the most rookies in 10 years, thunders Tuesday after a purse of $375,000 or more in the golden anniversary 500-mile auto race.

The 33 drivers, screened from 60 nominees by two weekends of time trials, met today in the last preliminary to the Memorial Day classic—the annual rules review and officials' traditional chilling reminder that you can't win riding in an ambulance or a hearse.

The vanguard of the potential audience of 200,000 was talking up two especially glamorous newcomers, Australian Jack Brabham and Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif.

Brabham, world road racing champion the last two years, challenged the race's 14-year domination by Offenhauser-powered cars built especially for the 2 1/2-mile brick and asphalt track.

His English Coper Climax also was built especially for Indianapolis but it departed from the American style by having a smaller engine installed behind the driver and a shorter, lighter chassis.

Jones, a terror on smaller American tracks, upheld his reputation with fast, heady driving in practice and qualifications. The 27-year-old rookie, one of the five youngest drivers in the field, will pilot the year-old Agagianian Special, an A. J. Watson creation in which Lloyd Ruby of Houston placed seventh in his first start.

Ruby this year has the new Epperly car originally assigned to veteran Tony Bettenhausen, killed May 11 testing another car. This would have been Bettenhausen's 15th Memorial Day race.

The favorite—as much as there can be a favorite in this car-smashing contest—is 1959 winner Roger Ward of Indianapolis. The former USAC national champion, 40, has been running easily at 140.5 miles an hour practicing in a new type Watson.

Jim Rathmann of Miami set the race record of 138.767 last year in the same Watson he is driving this year. He and Ward have finished only a few seconds apart in the last two 500s.

Travs Sweep Pair From Shreveport

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was just like old times, Nashville baseball fans agreed today, the way the home runs were sailing out of Sulphur Dell Park during the Sunday twin bill featuring Chattanooga and the Vols.

Chattanooga won the homer, duel, six blasts to five, but the doubleheader came out even. Nashville captured the opener 10-9, but Chattanooga won the short nightcap 13-8, and everybody had a grand time except the pitchers.

Elsewhere, the pitching around the Southern Association was much sharper. Little Rock got excellent mound work from George Stepanovich and Chuck Daniel and swept a doubleheader from Shreveport 7-1 and 7-2. Howie Koplitz improved his record to 6-0 for Birmingham when he subdued Mobile 5-1 for the front running Barons on eight hits. Atlanta topped the tailend Macon Peaches 4-2.

Stepanovich limited Shreveport to three hits for Little Rock in the first game. The only run scored by the Sports was unearned. Don Saner homered and singled to run his hitting string to 18 consecutive games. He has hit safely in every game since he joined the Travs from the Pacific Coast League.

Home runs by Chuck Staniland and Dave Nicholson helped Daniel work the Sports over in the second game. Staniland's came in the first inning with two on.

It was the night of the Sugar Ray Robinson-Jake La Motta fight that Max hit his peak. You'll remember that was the night that Sugar Ray hit Jake with everything but the ring posts, but the sturdy La Motta refused to go down. He was out on his feet. But his trunk-like legs were still under him and he wouldn't go down.

Max was hollering.
"Slice him, Sugar Boy! Cut him! The left! The right! In the breadbasket! In the head!" Max bellowed and boomed. He was a happy man. This was what he was born for. This was his destiny. To be present at every important kill. And to holler that kill to the very end.

Other people had hollered too, but none could hold a candle to Max and his voice. He had out-whopped everybody. And, now that he thought it over after the fight, Max decided that this was just the beginning. He could do better. And this had been a fight that had inspired even the amateurs in the hollering business to do their utmost.

After the fight, Max stopped in a tavern on 63rd Street. He stood at the bar alone and had a beer and thought back on the fight and how he had hollered.

It had been a good night. The best.

Three beers and an hour later, he swaggered out of the bar.

The excitement of this evening, the feeling of a job well done, and all of the other factors increased his satisfaction.

As he walked along Dorchester, he talked to himself. "Bloody him up, Boy! Belt him! Clobber him!" He said these things under his breath and was sorry he wasn't in a shouting crowd so he could really let himself go. Then, he brightened. Next week there was a wrestling match and Cardini was wrestling. That was always good for a big holler, especially when Cardini stuck his thumb in the other guy's eye and gouged. Max smiled to himself.

Max reached his home with a warm glow of happiness.

He let himself into the apartment quietly, on tip toe. In the dark, he took off his hat and overcoat. He was about to take his suitcoat off when the fan hit him. It bounced to the floor as the lights went on in the room.

His wife stood menacingly at the bedroom door, all six feet of her.

"Home, at last, huh? Well, let me tell you a thing or three, you little weasel. And don't open your mouth in reply or I'll close it for you good." She had the iron skillet in her hand as she spoke. Max, the holler guy, was silent.

THE HOLLER GUY By LESTER ARNO

Max was a holler guy.

Max could be heard at any sporting event. He was the guy hollering for the kill when the challenger had the champion cut to ribbons in the 10th round and everybody else wanted the fight stopped. Max was the guy out for blood with the call of every ball and strike at the ballpark; he incited riots at the hockey matches and even stirred up bad blood at the bowling classic, and that takes some doing.

He was a little guy. Maybe five feet four or five. Didn't weigh much either. But he made up for his size with his holler.

While the good Lord skimmed and saved in endowing Max in height and weight, He made up for it in lung leather and throat-box.

Max was one of the great, all-time hollers.

It was the night of the Sugar Ray Robinson-Jake La Motta fight that Max hit his peak. You'll remember that was the night that Sugar Ray hit Jake with everything but the ring posts, but the sturdy La Motta refused to go down. He was out on his feet. But his trunk-like legs were still under him and he wouldn't go down.

Violence Breaks Out in Africa

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—A three-day strike called by political leaders of South Africa's nonwhite, voteless majority opened today but not with universal success. The strike is due to run until South Africa acts ties with Britain and becomes a republic Wednesday.

Violence broke out against bus lines Sunday night in some areas, notably Durban and Port Elizabeth, but there were no immediate reports of trouble this morning.

South African police and troops were mobilized to protect Negroes, mulattos and Indians who wanted to work, and many of them chose to report as usual.

Thousands, however, stayed at home in Johannesburg, Port Elizabeth, Durban and some other major cities.

The South African radio, government-controlled, quoted police and military officials as saying "the natives are going to work as usual. There is no support for the strike call in Johannesburg."

But a high percentage of the Negroes employed in this city obviously stayed away from their jobs. Hardly any were to be seen on the streets that normally are crowded with them during the morning rush hour. The railroad station looked deserted when it should have been jammed.

The South African Press Association estimated only a fifth of the usual number of nonwhite workers came in by train.

On the eve of the strike, Negro mobs blocked roads in the Durban and Port Elizabeth areas and stoned the buses of workers. Road blocks were formed of gasoline drums, poles and rocks. A Negro bus driver was shot and wounded while steering his bus through a stone-throwing gang in Port Elizabeth. Frightened drivers wanted to quit, but police promised them protection and escorted the buses.

The strike was timed to climax Wednesday, when South Africa becomes a republic outside the British Commonwealth. The demonstration was in protest against Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd's refusal to discuss demands that the right to vote and serve in the government be extended from the country's 3 million whites to its 11 million Negroes, 1.5 million persons of mixed blood and 500,000 Indians.

Every policeman and every soldier in South Africa, plus 5,000 reservists called up for the emergency, were mobilized to back up Verwoerd's promise that any non-white wanting to work would be given protection.

27 Home Runs Blasted in American Loop

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

American League sluggers hit 27 home runs Sunday, a new one-league record, as Detroit widened its lead over second-place Cleveland to 3½ games.

The old record was 26, set by the National League, May 20, 1956 when the American also set its old mark with 24. The two-league total of 50 still stands. However, they played 16 games that day. Sunday the American played only seven and the National (12 homers) on four.

Ten homers were hit at Cleveland, nine at New York, five at Los Angeles, two at Washington and one at Baltimore.

There was a fantastic first game at Yankee Stadium between the Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees. The Sox piled up a six-run lead with the help of a grand slammer by Wes Covington and the Yankees tied it with six runs in an inning, four on a grand slammer by Bob Cerv, a pinch hitter. Despite two more Yank homers, the Sox finally slammed out a 14-9 decision, breaking a six-game losing streak. New York won the second game, a comparatively quiet affair, 5-3, despite another homer by Covington.

They really teed off in Cleveland. Only three homers were hit in the opener, won by the Tribe 9-1 on Gary Bell's six-hitter against Kansas City. Seven were slammed in the second, won by the A's rookie Norm Bass with a six-hitter. Johnny Romano of Cleveland and Norm Sieben of the A's each contributed two.

Detroit called on its Sunday punch, Charlie Maxwell, as well as Norm Cash and Dick Brown for home runs at Los Angeles but needed a two-run double by Billy Bruton in the seventh for a 9-4 victory over the Angels.

The new Washington Senators continued to make life miserable for the old Washington Senators, now the Minnesota Twins, beating them for the third straight time 6-4. It was the eighth defeat for the Twins in their last nine games. The new Senators have won 11 of their last 16 in a rise to fifth place.

Rookie Don Schwall snapped a five-game Baltimore winning streak by pitching the Eastern Red Sox to a seven-hit 5-0 victory. He struck out Jerry Adair four times in his total of eight.

In the National League, San Francisco held tight to its 2½-game lead by whipping Chicago for the eighth straight time 6-5. Los Angeles kept pace with the Giants on a 4-3 decision over Milwaukee, won by Dick Farrell's relief work. Cincinnati made it eight in a row over Philadelphia

The Indians Arrived in Hope Saturday

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Jim Parkin of Popular Bluff, Mo., trounced defending champion David Dixon of Memphis 5 and 4 yesterday Sunday in the finals of the 13th annual J.W. Buzick Sr. Memorial Golf Tournament.

Parkin, a 43-year-old bowling alley proprietor, was even with par when the match ended on the 14th hole.

Dixon, a Memphis State College student, couldn't stand the steady pressure exerted by Parkin's sparkling iron play.

Parkin, who won the Buzick tournament in 1954, defeated Sug Wilson of Hot Springs 2 and 1 in the semifinals while Dixon was disposing of Roy Williams of Charleston, Mo., 1 up.

Giants Cling to Lead With Win Over Cubs

San Francisco clung to its 2½-game lead in the National League Sunday by beating the Chicago Cubs for the eighth straight time 6-5 while the Los Angeles Dodgers were easing past Milwaukee.

Despite the Cubs' sorry performance of losing 18 of their last 21 games, they still are not in the cellar. Philadelphia remained in last place by bowing to the Cincinnati Reds for the eighth straight time this year. Vada Pinson's pair of two-run homers and Bob Purkey's pitching did the job for the Reds.

St. Louis knocked out former teammate Harvey Haddix in a six-run first inning and swept the three-game series from Pittsburgh by trouncing the Pirates 8-4. Al Cicotte saved the day with 6-2-3 innings of scoreless relief pitching.

Los Angeles, trailing the Giants by 2½ games, nosed out Milwaukee 4-3 with the aid of six scoreless innings of pitching by relief man Dick Farrell.

In the American League, 27 home runs were hit, a new all-time high for one league. The old mark was 26 by the National in eight games, May 30, 1956. The American played seven games Sunday.

Detroit picked up a half game on second-place Cleveland and widened its lead to 3½ games by whipping Los Angeles 9-4 while the Indians were splitting two with Kansas City. Cleveland won the first game 9-1 but lost the second 8-4. Chicago blew a six-lead but still topped New York 14-9 in the first game only to have the Yanks grab the second 5-3. Washington dumped Minnesota again 6-4 and Boston's Don Schwall shut out Baltimore 5-0.

Manager Al Dark went to his bench for the hits that gave the Giants their decision over the Cubs. Orlando Cepeda's 14th homer in the fifth inning and three more runs in the seventh melted away when Ernie Banks hit the ninth grand slammer of his career in the eighth.

Dark sent up Eddie Bressoud to hit for Hobie Landrith with two out, nobody on and the score tied 4-4 in the ninth. Bressoud doubled and Joe Amalfitano followed with a pinch triple. Jose Pagan's infield single provided the run that stood up for a 6-5 victory despite Ed Bouchée's homer in the ninth.

Pinson drove in all the runs with his two homers and Purkey slid over some rough spots with the help of fine fielding in the Reds' triumph. Both homers came off loser Frank Sullivan. Bob Makman and Pancho Herrera homered for the Phils.

Ken Boyer drove in four runs with a three-run double off Haddix in the first and a single off Clem Labine in the fourth of the Cards' victory. Charley James hit a two-run homer in the first inning attack that floored Haddix. Hal Smith, Dick Groat and Dick Stuart hit home runs off Ray Sadecki before Cicotte took over in the third.

Parrell, a loser Saturday, was the winner Sunday although he gave up seven hits in his six scoreless innings of relief pitching after Hank Aaron rocked Roger Craig with a double and a two-run homer. Lew Burdette was the loser.

Boston Sets New World Record

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—World champion Ralph Boston won't hazard a guess as to how far man will broad jump, but he does not think his new mark of 27 feet ½ inch will last long.

He turned in the greatest broad jump in history to highlight the 20th annual California Relays on Saturday night.

Boston, now 22, is a biochemist senior at Tennessee A & I at Nashville, Tenn. Before winning the Olympic gold medal last year, he erased the oldest world record on the book with a 26-11½ effort. Jesse Owens, back in 1935, had set a mark of 26-8¼ that lasted a quarter century before Boston broke it.

Don Bragg won the pole vault as the only man to clear 15 feet. George Davies, who bettered the world record at 15-10 a week previous failed to clear 14-6 here. San Jose's Dennis Johnson beat Oregon's Harry Jerome in the 100 as both were timed in 9.4 a tenth of a second over both the world and meet records.

Little Jim Beatty won the mile as expected but the Santa Clara Valley Youth Olympic veteran was timed in 3:58.8, a shade behind his winning time of 3:58 a year ago. Oregon won the four-mile relay in 16:32.8, well below its pending American record of 16:29.3 and the world record of 16:25.2.

Pearson Captures Automobile Race

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C. limped the final lap and a half on three tires and a rim to claim the $29,450 top prize money in Sunday's World 600 mile race for late model autos.

Pearson was winging away from the field in his 1961 Pontiac and held a lead of three laps over Glen (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona Beach, Fla., when his right rear tire blew on the back stretch with a lap and a half to go.

The husky, purple-clad Pearson kept the car under control and got the checkered flag with a lap to spare.

He negotiated the 400 laps around the mile and a half Charlotte Motor Speedway at an average speed of 111.633 miles per hour.

Roberts, also driving a 1961 Pontiac, finished second and won $9,240.
